Simon is a very experienced junior barrister, specialising in all aspects of claims involving serious and catastrophic personal injury and all forms of occupational disease. He is instructed by claimants and defendants solicitors nationally.

He has a very busy and successful paperwork practice. He is an extremely effective cross-examiner with excellent attention to detail. He strives to put clients at their ease, ensuring that expectations are well managed and that the very best results can be obtained for them.

Expertise

Occupational Disease

Simon is instructed by top tier Claimants and Defendants solicitors nationally.

He has an extensive disease portfolio covering the range of long and short-tail disease. He is regularly instructed in all areas of occupational toxic exposures including:-

- Asbestos, including mesothelioma
- Industrial cancers
- Asthma
- Dermatitis
- RSI and upper limb disorders
- Occupational stress related illness
- Noise induced hearing loss.

Serious and catastrophic injuries

Simon deals with road traffic, employers liability and public liability claims which have resulted in:-

- Serious bodily and psychological harm
- Traumatic brain injuries
- Limb amputations
- Pain and other neurological disorders

- Fatal accident claims

Inquests

Simon is instructed in inquests, usually, but not exclusively when the death is associated with a personal injury claim. His practice includes acting for bereaved families and also for private prisons, relating to deaths in custody, particularly when allegations of neglect have been made.
