

ANDREW HOGAN

Year of call: 1996

Clerked by: Stephen Loxton Harry Young

AREAS OF EXPERTISE:

Costs and Litigation Funding Credit Hire Litigation Serious Injury Other Work

Credit Hire Litigation

Andrew has worked for more than 20 years in the field of credit hire and accepts instructions from both claims handling organisations and insurance companies. He maintains a strong trial practice, is regularly instructed in appeals and undertakes drafting and advisory work in respect of credit hire agreements and terms and conditions.

Da Costa and another v Sargaco and another [2016] EWCA Civ 764

Stuart John Gentry v Lee Miller and UK Insurance [2016] EWCA Civ 141

Profile

For many years Andrew had a broad common law practice including undertaking substantial amounts of town and country planning work and public law cases. He now principally focuses his efforts in the fields of costs and litigation funding, credit hire litigation and serious injury litigation.

He has a national practice in all these fields and has an established reputation both in the professional directories and the legal profession as an expert in his areas of practice. He is known as a problem solver, and has particular expertise in the field of civil procedure.

Year of Call: 1996

Areas of Expertise

Costs and Litigation Funding

Credit Hire Litigation

Other Work

Serious Injury

Memberships

Personal Injury Bar Association

Administrative Law Bar Association

Planning and Environmental Bar Association

Appointments

Direct Access Qualified

Qualifications

LLB(Hons) Bristol, LLM Sussex, BVC, Member of the Inner Temple

Recommendations

Legal 500 2020

' A costs specialist. '

Chambers & Partners 2020

'A man of deep experience who's very good at forecasting what might happen in court.'

Publications

Over 100 articles in various legal journals, including a regular column in Litigation Funding magazine.

www.costsbarrister.co.uk

www.credithirebarrister.com

www.seriousinjurybarrister.co.uk