AREAS OF EXPERTISE:

Banking & Finance Commercial Litigation Company
Insolvency Professional Negligence Real Estate Litigation

Commercial Litigation

Chelsea is regularly instructed to represent clients in the County Court and High Court (small claims, fast track and multi-track). She is experienced in contractual disputes of all kinds, debt recovery, guarantees, sale and supply of goods and services, interim remedies (including summary judgment and applications for security for costs) and procedural aspects of the CPR.

Profile

Chelsea joined Chambers in 2016 on successful completion of pupillage. Chelsea is developing a practice in commercial and chancery litigation and welcomes instructions in the fields of insolvency (both corporate and personal), company, commercial disputes and property matters.

With regular appearances in the County Court and High Court conducting applications, CCMCs and trials, Chelsea has a broad range of advocacy experience. She is also often instructed in a range of advisory and drafting work.

Chelsea is down to earth and user friendly, and aims to provide a practical and professional service that is tailored to her clients' individual needs.
