

KILLIAN GARVEY

Year of call: 2014

Clerked by: William Brown Gary Smith Mark Ronson

AREAS OF EXPERTISE:

Administrative & Public Law Environment Local Government
Planning

Administrative & Public Law

Profile

Killian Garvey is a specialist planning barrister.

Killian regularly appears in inquiries and the High Court across the country. He acts for both developers and local authorities on a roughly 60/40 split, respectively. He has a particular specialism in residential development, enforcement action and compulsory purchase orders.

He has been ranked as the second best planning junior outside of a London chambers for the last 2 years in Planning Resource Magazine. He has also been consistently ranked amongst the top barristers under the age of 35 nationwide (2nd in 2017).

Chambers and Partners Bar UK records him as an Up & Coming Junior for Planning in the Midlands Region, where the following is recorded about him:

'Very helpful and quick to come up with solutions to quite complex issues'

'An excellent advocate who provides great timely advice and great customer service'

Killian is a member of the Attorney General's C Panel of Junior Counsel

Year of Call: 2014

Areas of Expertise

Administrative & Public Law

Environment

Local Government

Planning

Memberships

Northern Circuit

Lincoln's Inn

Planning and Environment Bar Association

Qualifications / Education

University of Oxford: Bachelor of Civil Law (2014)

University of Law: Bachelor of Laws LLB (2014) - First Class Honours

University of Law: Bar Professional Training Course (2014) - Outstanding

College of Law (Chester): Graduate Diploma in Law (2011) – Distinction, 1st in the year

University of Liverpool: Bachelor's Degree in History (2010) – First Class Honours, 1st in the year

St. Anselm's College (Birkenhead)

Recommendations

Chambers UK 2020

"Scarily bright and just so good on the detail." "He is beyond his years in ability and is a very strong cross-examiner and a confident inquiry advocate." "He talks things through and explains things well to the client."

Chambers UK 2018

"Very helpful and quick to come up with solutions to quite complex issues."

"An excellent advocate who provides great timely advice and great customer service."

Killian Garvey