

LISA WALMISLEY

Year of call: 2000

Clerked by: Harry Young Brandon Singh

AREAS OF EXPERTISE:

Dispute Resolution Civil Fraud Insolvency Sport

Civil Fraud

Lisa has been instructed in all aspects of commercial and company disputes, including civil fraud matters and applications of varying types under the Companies Act. She has also regularly appeared in relation to property matters and in particular applications relating to the priority of charges and the enforceability of charging orders.

Significant Reported Cases

Ultraframe (UK) Ltd v Fielding [EWHC] 1638 (Ch), C&W Berry Limited v Armstrong-Moakes [2008] IP & CR DG1, CEP Holdings Ltd v Steni [2009] EWHC 2447, Shaw v API Group, LTL 10 April 2008

Profile

Lisa practises in all aspects of commercial law. She has wide ranging experience in insolvency law in particular and has represented Office Holders as well as Respondents in all aspects of personal and corporate insolvency.

Lisa has significant experience in all company and partnership matters in particular she has been instructed in several large scale fraud matters including claims arising out of a breach of trust. She regularly appears in the High Court to obtain all forms of injunctive relief including without notice freezing and search and seizure Orders.

Lisa regular appears in matters related to sports law including contractual and commercial disputes and disciplinary matters.

Year of Call: 2000

Areas of Expertise

Civil Fraud

Dispute Resolution

Insolvency

Sport

Memberships

Northern Chancery Bar Association

Northern Circuit Commercial Bar Association

British Irish Commercial Bar Association

Chancery Bar Association

Qualifications

LLB (Hons) University of Newcastle Upon Tyne, 2:1

Recommendations

Chambers UK 2018

"She achieves positive results and her advice is very thorough." "She is an approachable, responsive and commercial barrister."

Legal 500 2018

'Robust, direct and good with clients.'

Legal 500 2017

'A very assured and combative advocate.'

Chambers UK 2017

"She is friendly, knowledgeable and a strong advocate in court."

Chambers UK 2016

"She's ferocious in court. When she gets the bit between her teeth she really dishes it out to the other side."

Chambers and Partners 2011-2015 Insolvency

Legal 500 2014-2015 Commercial Dispute Resolution and Insolvency

