Clerked by: Louise Barnes Luke Heywood

AREAS OF EXPERTISE:

Banking & Finance Company Commercial Dispute Resolution
Insolvency Partnership Professional Negligence Real Estate
Litigation Sport Technology & Construction

Banking & Finance

Nick's prior experience as a chartered accountant has provided him with a useful background relevant to all aspects of banking and finance.

During pupillage, Nick observed and assisted with many common banking and finance matters, such as consumer credit act claims including the 'unfair relationship' provisions.

Nick is currently instructed as a junior (led by Mark Harper QC) in a case brought against a major bank for mis-sold PPI claims.

Profile

Nick became a tenant at Kings Chambers in September 2020 after completing pupillage under the supervision of Andrew Latimer and Eleanor Temple. Nick accepts instructions in all areas practised by the Business and Property team.

Under the supervision of Andrew Latimer, Nick gained experience in all aspects of commercial and chancery work, with an emphasis on commercial dispute resolution, company and property matters. In his second six and under the supervision of Eleanor Temple he gained particular experience in insolvency, banking and finance.

Prior to coming to the bar Nick qualified as a chartered accountant in the corporate tax team at one of the 'Big 4' firms, which provides a useful background when dealing with matters with an accounting, financial or tax aspect.
