Clerked by: Louise Barnes Luke Heywood

AREAS OF EXPERTISE:

Banking & Finance Company Commercial Dispute Resolution
Insolvency Partnership Professional Negligence Real Estate
Litigation Sport Technology & Construction

Company

During pupillage, Nick gained significant experience of shareholder disputes, including unfair prejudice petitions, derivative actions and winding up on the just and equitable ground.

Nick has experience of drafting pleadings and advising on unfair prejudice petitions, including where breaches of directors' duties are alleged. Nick also has experience of advising on potential claims for breach of confidence.

In addition, Nick has experience of common Companies Act applications in the Business and Property courts, including applications for rectification of the register, replacement of charges and extensions of time to deliver charges to the Registrar.

Profile

Nick became a tenant at Kings Chambers in September 2020 after completing pupillage under the supervision of Andrew Latimer and Eleanor Temple. Nick accepts instructions in all areas practised by the Business and Property team.

Under the supervision of Andrew Latimer, Nick gained experience in all aspects of commercial and chancery work, with an emphasis on commercial dispute resolution, company and property matters. In his second six and under the supervision of Eleanor Temple he gained particular experience in insolvency, banking and finance.

Prior to coming to the bar Nick qualified as a chartered accountant in the corporate tax team at one of the 'Big 4' firms, which provides a useful background when dealing with matters with an accounting, financial or tax aspect.
