Commercial Litigation

Simon has significant experience of general commercial litigation matters, having acted for individuals and corporate entities in contractual, tortious and partnership disputes for a broad range of businesses both regionally and nationally. Simon's experience spans: disputes regarding supply and distribution agreements / funding agreements / partnership expulsions and disputes concerning the quality and merchantability of specialist equipment.

Simon's experience includes obtaining and opposing freezing injunctions, applying for and defending security for costs applications, with an emphasis on high value claims and experience of all aspects of interim applications. Simon also has experience of conflict of laws, including the application of the Rome 2 regulations.

Profile

With over 22 years of experience, the first 17 year of which was spent as a solicitor and latterly as a partner in a global law firm, Simon brings considerable legal, practical and commercial awareness to the matters on which he is instructed. His experience spans all aspects of commercial litigation with a focus on and experience in construction and engineering disputes, professional negligence claims (for both claimants and defendants), banking and finance disputes and insurance coverage matters.

Simon has appellate experience, including written advocacy in the Court of Appeal and written and oral advocacy at lower appellate level.

His recent experience includes:

- Advising an Italian manufacturer of specialist start/stop car batteries on a claim brought by a global car manufacturer. Claim value €100m+.
- Several instructions to enforce or resist enforcement of adjudicators' award in the High Court.
- Instructed (unled) by a major law firm on many high value, multi-party solicitor negligence claims: Total quantum circa £7m.
- Instructed (unled) by a City law firm to enforce guarantees given under a bilateral secured receivable finance facility agreement against overseas domiciled guarantors.
- Instructed by a building contractor to resist an employer's application for a freezing order. Injunction refused and costs awarded in favour of the contractor.
- Instructed on an international sale and supply of goods dispute.
