Procurement

Simon has experience advising on the delivery and on-going performance of, in particular, large scale construction projects, including dispute avoidance and resolution in a range of tribunals. His experience includes advising a local authority on a large mixed use development, including procurement advice and negotiations with the main contractor and lead tenants, regarding issues which emerged during the construction process.

In addition, he has advised a utility provider on a range of public law matters, including the interpretation of various enabling acts of parliament and statutory instruments as to:

- The level and basis of charges which statutory undertakers may charge and recover for apparatus diversion works; and
- The correct interpretation of the 'deeming provisions' of the New Roads and Street Works Act 1991.

Profile

With over 22 years of experience, the first 17 year of which was spent as a solicitor and latterly as a partner in a global law firm, Simon brings considerable legal, practical and commercial awareness to the matters on which he is instructed. His experience spans all aspects of commercial litigation with a focus on and experience in construction and engineering disputes, professional negligence claims (for both claimants and defendants), banking and finance disputes and insurance coverage matters.

Simon has appellate experience, including written advocacy in the Court of Appeal and written and oral advocacy at lower appellate level.

His recent experience includes:

- Advising an Italian manufacturer of specialist start/stop car batteries on a claim brought by a global car manufacturer. Claim value €100m+.
- Several instructions to enforce or resist enforcement of adjudicators' award in the High Court.
- Instructed (unled) by a major law firm on many high value, multi-party solicitor negligence claims: Total quantum circa £7m.
- Instructed (unled) by a City law firm to enforce guarantees given under a bilateral secured receivable finance facility agreement against overseas domiciled guarantors.
- Instructed by a building contractor to resist an employer's application for a freezing order. Injunction refused and costs awarded in favour of the contractor.
- Instructed on an international sale and supply of goods dispute.
