Andrew joined the Business and Property team in Chambers in September 2023, following the successful completion of his pupillage under the supervision of Dr Nathan Smith and Doug Cochran.

Andrew accepts work in most areas within Business and Property including commercial, property and probate.

Andrew has represented clients in both the High and County Courts and assisted Louis Doyle KC during the first six of his pupillage in the case of Aston Risk Management v Lee Jones and others [2023] EWHC 603 (Ch) that involved consideration of directors' duties and the creditors' interests.

With a particularly strong academic background, Andrew understands the need to provide lucid and comprehensive advice for clients.

His other non-legal interests include Heart of Midlothian FC, bagpiping and medieval history.
