

Chloe Reddock

Year of call 2021

	dplatt@kingschambers.com
	0345 034 3444

Following the completion of her public law pupillage at Kings Chambers, Chloe is the newest addition to the Court of Protection team. She acts for 'P', local authorities, health trusts and ICBs in section 21A and section 16 health and welfare proceedings.

Prior to completing pupillage, Chloe completed an internship with a capital defense office in Texas, undertook a paid internship with the UK Supreme Court and worked for a Dutch NGO which specialised in anti-discrimination law, and the rights to free expression and association.

Expertise

Court of Protection

Memberships

- Advocate
- BHRC
- Women in the Law

Qualifications

- First Class Honours | Law with Spanish LLB | The University of Liverpool
- Distinction | Human Rights Law LLM | UCL
- Very Competent | Bar Training Course | BPP University
- Certificate of Completion | Law and Chinese Language MA | Peking University