

Rory Goodson

Year of call 2019

	lmorrissey@kingschambers.com
	0345 034 3444

Rory joined the Business and Property team in Chambers in October 2022, following the successful completion of his pupillage under the supervision of Richard Lander and Dr Nathan Smith.

Rory's practice encompasses all areas of Chambers' business and property work, and during his pupillage, he was exposed to a wide variety of work across a diverse range of fields.

In the second six months of his pupillage, Rory regularly represented clients in the High Court and the County Court in a broad range of applications and trials, including shareholder and company disputes, insolvency applications, contractual litigation, and property and landlord/tenant actions. Rory is also frequently instructed in advisory and drafting work.

Prior to commencing pupillage, Rory undertook an LLM at the University of Chicago Law School, before working for a leading boutique commercial litigation firm.

Expertise

Partnership

Real Estate Litigation

Sport

Banking and Finance

Company

Insolvency

Commercial Litigation

Technology and Construction

Memberships

- Honourable Society of the Inner Temple, Northern Circuit

Qualifications

- BA (Jurisprudence) – Trinity College, University of Oxford
- LLM – University of Chicago Law School
- BPTC – City Law School

Awards

- Slaughter & May Prize for History of English Law, University of Oxford, 2017